

Wednesday Bible Study | September 11, 2024 | Pastor Greg Davidson
How to Deal with Difficult People
Titus 1:10-16

I. Replace Religious Corruption with Jesus Titus 1:10

A. Replace Rebellion with Respect

B. Replace Empty Speech with Substantial Speech

C. Replace Lies with Truth

II. Take Bold Action to Protect Others

A. Set Boundaries for Healthy Conversation Titus 1:11

B. Set Boundaries for Healthy Homes Titus 1:11

C. Set Boundaries for Healthy Teaching Titus 1:11

III. Establish a Course Correction for Bad Behavior

A. Corrected to a Good Reputation Titus 1:12

B. Corrected to Sound Beliefs Titus 1:13-14

C. Corrected to a Pure Heart Titus 1:15

D. Corrected to Total Dedication Titus 1:16

Questions

1. How does replacing religious corruption with Jesus help you deal with difficult people? Why are respect, substantial speech, and the truth so important to good relationships?

2. Why does taking bold actions to protect others help you deal with difficult people effectively? In what areas do we set boundaries with difficult people?

3. How do we set a course correction for bad behavior in difficult people? Why are good reputation, sound beliefs, a pure heart, and total dedication important for a good relationship with difficult people?